I am writing with the difficult task of telling you that I have accepted Marie Wolf's resignation as a manager in this Office. I deeply regret Marie's decision, and thank her for her dedicated and highly effective service to her and your clients. Marie's last day in the office will be Friday, July 23.

Subject: resignation

Just to clarify David's email, I had hoped to resign as manager and to continue as an attorney picking up a full caseload. David said that wouldn't work.

I knew this was a possibility when I resigned as manager, and, although it's not the way I would have picked to leave, I can live with it.

Marie

Dear David:

Please accept my resignation as managing attorney. I would like to continue as a full-time attorney with a full caseload. I think it would be a good idea to make the transition as soon as possible, but I will leave the details to your discretion.

Very truly yours,

Marie Wolf
